Meals: Breakfast & Sunset Champagne Refreshments

Accommodation: Luxury Hotel in Siem Reap (Amansara or Raffles Grand Hotel d'Angkor)

Expert Visiting & Flight Insights:

Morning temple visits at Angkor Wat require modest dress covering shoulders and knees (a strict dress code enforced across sacred archaeological sites). Helicopter scenic flights are subject to local weather conditions and air traffic control clearance; ensure your original passport is carried for pre-flight security verification.

Day 3: Mystical Temples, Private Monk Blessing & Classical Apsara Performance

Morning: Depart early to explore Ta Prohm, the world-famous "Tomb Raider temple," at its quietest and most tranquil hour before the crowds arrive. Walk beneath vast silk-cotton tree roots and strangler figs intertwined with crumbling 12th-century stone galleries. Next, drive through scenic rural villages to Banteay Srei, the "Citadel of Women." Famous for its delicate pink sandstone architecture, marvel at some of the finest, most intricately preserved relief carvings in classical Khmer art.

Afternoon: Return toward Siem Reap for a private spiritual encounter at a quiet local pagoda. Participate in a traditional water blessing performed by Buddhist monks, accompanied by rhythmic chanting and sacred red thread wristlets tied to bestow good health, fortune, and safe travels.

Evening: Conclude your day with an exclusive, curated dinner show at a private venue. Enjoy an elegant multi-course dinner while taking in a classical Apsara dance performance, where graceful dancers bring ancient temple bas-reliefs to life through intricate hand gestures and elaborate silk costumes.

Meals: Breakfast & Fine Dining Dinner

Accommodation: Luxury Hotel in Siem Reap (Amansara or Raffles Grand Hotel d'Angkor)

Expert Visiting & Cultural Etiquette Insights:

During the private monk blessing ceremony at the pagoda, respectfully remove your shoes and hats before entering the temple hall. Women should take care not to touch the monks directly when receiving blessings or gifts. For morning temple walks on stone steps and uneven tree roots at Ta Prohm, lightweight, breathable clothing and comfortable walking shoes with good traction are recommended.

Day 4: Phnom Penh Transit, Royal Heritage & Sunset Mekong Cruise

Morning: Check out of your Siem Reap hotel after breakfast as your private driver escorts you to the airport for a short 50-minute domestic flight south to Phnom Penh, Cambodia's vibrant capital city. Upon arrival, your local guide and driver will welcome you at the exit and transfer you directly to check into the Rosewood Phnom Penh, an ultra-luxury sanctuary occupying the top floors of the Vattanac Capital Tower, offering panoramic views overlooking the capital and the Mekong River.

Afternoon: Delve into Cambodia's royal history during an exclusive guided tour of the Royal Palace and the Silver Pagoda (Wat Preah Keo Morakot) accompanied by a personal historian. Walk through manicured gardens to admire traditional Khmer architecture, royal ceremonial halls, and the Silver Pagoda's famous floor made of over 5,000 hand-crafted silver tiles, housing priceless treasures like the Emerald Buddha and a life-sized solid-gold Buddha encrusted with thousands of diamonds.

Sunset: In the late afternoon, step aboard a private river launch for a sunset cruise at the four-river junction where the Mekong River meets the Tonle Sap River. Sip evening drinks and enjoy artisanal canapés as the setting sun casts a golden glow over Phnom Penh's waterfront skyline and floating fishing villages.

Meals: Breakfast

Accommodation: Rosewood Phnom Penh

Expert Transit & Royal Grounds Insights:

When visiting the Royal Palace and Silver Pagoda, strict royal etiquette and dress codes apply: shoulders and knees must be fully covered (shorts, sleeveless shirts, and tight leggings are not permitted). Photography is allowed in the outer courtyard gardens, but strictly prohibited inside the main throne hall and temple interiors.

Day 5: Artisan Traditions, Heritage High Tea & Farewell Gastronomy

Morning: Board a private wooden riverboat for a peaceful morning cruise up the Mekong River to Silk Island (Koh Dach), a scenic rural island famed for its centuries-old artisanal weaving heritage. Learn about the complete silk-making process—from silkworm cultivation to natural dye preparation—directly from local artisan families.

Afternoon: Return to Phnom Penh by boat and transfer to the legendary Raffles Hotel Le Royal, a historic landmark of Cambodian luxury since 1929. Relax in the elegant Elephant Bar or conservatory to indulge in a classic high tea experience, featuring fine teas, delicate pastries, and French-Khmer savories surrounded by vintage colonial charm.

Expert River & Dining Insights:

The morning boat excursion to Silk Island offers a refreshing, breezy ride on the Mekong, though sun protection (sunscreen, sunglasses, and a wide-brimmed hat) is recommended for open-deck seating and village walks. Smart-casual attire is ideal for afternoon high tea at Raffles Le Royal and your evening fine-dining farewell tasting menu.
