Itinerary

Day 1: Visit the Terracotta Warriors, Xi'an Ancient City Wall, and Muslim Quarter

Your private guide will coordinate the exact meeting time and location with you prior to the tour. A comfortable private vehicle will pick you up between 9:00 AM and 10:00 AM for the one-hour drive to the Terracotta Warriors Museum. As the "Eighth Wonder of the World," this site offers an unparalleled glimpse into China's imperial past. Your guide will provide expert commentary as you explore Pits 1, 2, and 3, sharing the fascinating stories behind the thousands of unique clay soldiers and the intricate bronze chariots and horses that have guarded the First Emperor for over 2,000 years.

Visit Time: 2 hours

After a relaxing local lunch, you will be driven to the Ancient City Wall of Xi'an. As the most complete and best-preserved ancient city defense system in China, it offers a majestic perspective of the city. Most visitors choose to cycle along the wide top of the wall (at your own expense) to enjoy a panoramic view where the charm of the old city meets the vibrant energy of the modern skyline.

Visit Time: 1 hour

Next, your journey continues to the Muslim Quarter, the bustling heart of Xi'an's cultural and culinary life. This vibrant district is a labyrinth of narrow streets filled with the enticing aromas of local snacks and traditional handicrafts. It is the perfect place to immerse yourself in the local atmosphere, sample authentic Silk Road flavors, and find unique souvenirs for friends and family.

Visit Time: 2 hours

At the end of your adventure, your private vehicle will escort you back to your hotel. If you wish to discover more hidden gems and historical wonders in China, explore our full range of China tours to find your next perfect itinerary.
