

One Day Shanghai Ancient Water Town Private Tour

Trip overview

Step away from the neon-lit skyline and into the serene beauty of the Yangtze River Delta. Our 1-Day Shanghai Ancient Town Tour offers a perfect escape to Zhujiajiao, a historic water town where ancient stone bridges, traditional courtyards, and tranquil canals have remained unchanged for centuries. This private journey is expertly designed to showcase the profound contrast between Shanghai's futuristic ambition and its peaceful, water-bound heritage.

Itinerary

Day 1: Qibao Ancient Town, Zhujiajiao Ancient Water Town

Your private guide will meet you at your Shanghai hotel around 9:00 am to begin your journey into the city's historic outskirts. Your first destination is Qibao Ancient Town, a charming enclave known for its traditional architecture and vibrant atmosphere. As you wander the ancient streets, you will discover exquisite local crafts, traditional paintings, and delicate potteries. This is also an excellent opportunity to sample authentic local snacks and find unique souvenirs. Visit Time: 2 hours

After lunch, continue your exploration at Zhujiajiao Ancient Water Town, often referred to as the "Venice of Shanghai". You will experience the town's poetic beauty firsthand with a private boat ride along its historic canals. Afterward, enjoy a guided walk through narrow ancient alleys, cross iconic stone bridges, and capture stunning photographs of the well-preserved Ming and Qing dynasty architecture. Around 5:00 pm, your private driver will escort you back to your hotel in Shanghai. Visit Time: 3 hours

Expert Tips:

To beat the crowds at Qibao, we recommend starting your walk as soon as you arrive, especially near the snack street which becomes very popular by midday. In Zhujiajiao, the Fangsheng Bridge offers the most panoramic view of the water town—perfect for your headline photo. If you are a fan of traditional tea, there are several quiet teahouses along the Zhujiajiao canals where you can rest and enjoy the view away from the main walking paths.
